Dear Mr. Dodson:

Re: C00323352 - Mid-Year Report (1/1/97-6/30/97)

We have researched the two concerns you raised in your letter of November 25, 1997, and can report the following:

1. The $5,000 check received by Committee for a Livable Future from American Federation of State, County & Municipal Employees was indeed written in December 1996 rather than in Calendar Year 1997, when we reported it. In determining why the check was reported in early 1997, we discovered that the check was initially handed to a volunteer in December 1996, but he did not pass it on to the Committee's financial administrator until early 1997. Therefore, we are amending our 1996 Year-End Report to show receipt of this $5,000 contribution in December 1996. That amended report is enclosed. We are also amending our 1997 Mid-Year Report to reflect the withdrawal of this contribution in 1997 (amendment enclosed).
2. Schedule B of our 1997 Mid-Year Report incorrectly listed Loretta Sanchez, House Candidate, District 46, California, as the candidate who received a $781.00 contribution on 6/30/97. This was a data processing error. The contribution was actually made to Carolyn McCarthy, House Candidate, District 4, New York. An amended FEC Schedule B Contributions to Federal Candidates is enclosed.

If you need additional clarification, please write to me at the above address, or call Susan Matthews at 503-295-1851.

Thank you,

Robert Stacey, Treasurer
